Report

Name of the Program : 57th National Pharmacy Week
Date of Event : 18/11/2018 To 24/11/2018
Program coordinator : Mr. Md. Zameeuddin

Indira college of pharmacy celebrated National Pharmacy Week from 18/11/2018 to 24/11/2018 in that we arrange various competition for students like

1. Poster presentation competition 2. Model presentation competition 3. Quiz competition 4. Rangoli competition 5. Museum presentation

Every year during the third week of November, the Indian Pharmaceutical Association celebrates National Pharmacy Week. To mark the 57th National Pharmacy Week, Indira College of Pharmacy held a number of competitions. Participants in various programs included students from the D. Pharmacy, B. Pharmacy, Pharm. D., and M. Pharmacy. To raise awareness of the function of pharmacists and how to improve health, this day is observed. This form of celebration was distinct and very fulfilling for all of our pharmacists as well as for aspiring pharmacists. At the conclusion of the event's week-long run, chief guest Dr. Prakash Katakam spoke about the duties and problems associated with the pharmacy profession. each and every member of the faculty present during the celebration.

Name of the Program : Republic Day
Date of Program : 26/01/2018
Program coordinator ; Mr. Jameel Ahmed

This Republic Day, Indira College of Pharmacy observed it. The entire teachers and staff have gathered on the college grounds and saluting. India's Republic Day, one of the most significant national days is celebrated with extraordinary zeal and enthusiasm throughout the nation. This day celebrates the key turning points in the "Constitution of India's" history. The nation commemorates this day by hosting a range of activities and programs that focus on the struggle for Indian independence. At our campus, we have a traditional day where students dress up to represent the many Indian cultures, including Maharashtrian, Gujrati, Panjabi, and south Indian. All program is organized by Jameel
